

Connecticut State Golf Association Dynamic Opportunity For Golf Leagues

League Benefits:

Leagues will establish themselves as a USGA Licensed Golf Club through the CSGA and USGA

Post scores at any golf club or online to the USGA GHIN system.

Free Tournament Pairings Program (TPP)

TPP latest features will enable the league administrator to easily run league schedules and tournaments.

Free eClubhouse website

eClubhouse allows league members to track their golf statistics, use online score posting and to contact other members.

League administrators can take advantage of eClubhouse's broadcast email feature, league news posting, and league schedules with results.

All benefits of CSGA/USGA membership including technical support, worldwide handicap recognition and score posting

League Member Benefits:

USGA Handicap Index through CSGA, GHIN and member golf club.

eClubhouse website

"Find Other Golfers" feature allows all members of the league to find other golfers to play with on non-league days.

Members can join an online discussion forum to exchange tips, opinions and personal news with fellow members.

League members can track a broad range of statistics within a period of time or for a particular course, such as:

Average Score, Par Differential, Greens in Regulation, Average Scores on Par 3s, 4s, and 5s, Average Drive, Longest Drive and critical measures of putts, fairways, sandies, and penalties.

All benefits of CSGA/USGA membership including technical support, worldwide handicap recognition and score posting

eclubhouse: "A New Way to Play an Ancient Game"

Easy Tournament Sign-Up -- Club Calendar

Throughout eClubhouse, members can sign up for tournament play and other local events with a few clicks of the mouse. Your club calendar will stay up-to-date with all relevant information, including team pairings and tournament results.

Keep Communal Bonds Strong

Club news posted on the front page of the eClubhouse site allows you to stay up-to-date with fellow members. Learn who shot a hole-in-one, who played well in a local tournament, as well as items posted by GHIN® such as new features and enhancements to its many services. Join an online discussion forum to exchange tips, opinions and personal news with fellow members. eClubhouse even offers your club a convenient photo archive to feature club outings and members.

Partner Well - Play Well

Every golfer knows the feeling. You are looking to play a round of golf, but can't find an available partner who can play at your level. eClubhouse gives you access to a broad network of clubs and golfers in your area. Indicate your availability and your level, and potential partners can contact you via e-mail. Of course, if you would prefer not to be contacted, you can opt-out from being listed in the "Find other players" search.

Paperless Scoring - No More Scorecards

Experience the convenience of paperless scoring with the intuitive version of the familiar score card. Your ESC handicap score is calculated automatically, and can then be posted directly to GHIN.

Track Your Ability

Golf is a numbers game, and your club site will help you crunch those numbers - especially when it comes to your own performance statistics. eClubhouse can track a broad range of stats within a period of time or for a particular course, such as:

- Average Score
- Greens Hit
- Putts
- Par Differential
- Fairways Hit
- Average Drive

Tournament Pairings Program (TPP)

Considered the standard of all tournament management software, TPP is in use at over 4,000 golf clubs. This valuable program is provided free of charge to all clubs that utilize GHIN. Additionally, the USGA and nearly 100 state and regional associations (including the CSGA) use TPP to run their championships.

Setup

Running TPP is as easy as point and click. Through selection of a short list of parameters, you can start running your competition in no time at all. TPP integrates seamlessly with GHIN's Handicap Program software so that adding golfers can be done with just one click of your mouse
